Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/13/08 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. The amendment received 8/13/08 has been entered in full.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Claim Objections

4. Claims 6 and 12 are objected to because of the following informalities:

5. Claim 6 line 9 recites, "generated". This should be changed to -generate- in order to be grammatically correct. On line 9, "Wherein" should be changed to -wherein- since it is not the beginning of the claim.

Regarding claim 12, line 7 reads "labeled and image and component...". It is unclear what is meant by this. The Examiner assumes that this should read -labeled image and component...-. Line 9 recites "generated" which should be changed to generate. Line 13 includes a period (.) at the end of the limitation, however it is not the end of the claim so a period should not be used, equally "Wherein" on line 11 should not be capitalized.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 6, 8, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 6, the phrases "could be" (line 11) and "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d). Examiner suggests reciting positive limitations to clearly state what the invention is. For example, "wherein w is a general function of the component characteristics that is related to one of component size, component confidence, or types of components".

Furthermore claim 6 is indefinite regarding the equation used for the following reasons. First the limitation recites a component specific weighting factor W (note that the W is capital), however in the equation the w is lower case and there is no capital W. Then the w is defined as a general function of component characteristics. The Examiner notes that there are two separate definitions for W and w, and that W is not used in the equation. Furthermore the I, Z, i, and j variables are not defined in the limitations so it is unclear what this equation represents. Finally there is nothing to tie this equation to the previous limitations of the claim, for example it is not disclosed how the component specific weighting factor or the general function of component characteristics is linked to the two pass ZOI creating method using the component labeled image and component characteristics to create an adaptive ZOI image. Examiner recommends defining the variables of the equation in the claim, as well as linking the equation to the adaptive image region partition method.

The same arguments regarding the equation of claim 6 also hold true for the equation of claim 12.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

8. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

9. Claims 6,8, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as not falling within one of the four statutory categories of invention. While the claims recite a series of steps or acts to be performed, a statutory “process” under 35 U.S.C. 101 must (1) be tied to another statutory category (such as a particular apparatus), or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or material) to a different state or thing (Reference the May 15, 2008 memorandum issued by Deputy Commissioner for Patent Examining Policy, John J. Love, titled “Clarification of ‘Processes’ under 35 U.S.C. 101” – publicly available at USPTO.GOV, “memorandum to examining corp”). The instant claims neither transform underlying subject matter nor positively tie to another statutory category that accomplishes the claimed method steps, and therefore do not qualify as a statutory process. In order for a process to be “tied” to another statutory category, the structure of another statutory category should be positively recited in a step or steps significant to the basic inventive concept, and NOT just in association with statements of intended use or purpose, insignificant pre or post solution activity, or implicitly.

The Examiner recommends amending claims 6 and 12 by inserting, "using a computer or processor to carry out the steps of:" between lines 2 and 3.
